The Narcissistic Family Diagnosis And
The author uses the words "narcissistic family" to describe a situation where a child's needs couldn't be met, for whatever reason - alcoholism; depression, etc. Very helpful to think of it this way and to consider her advice not to justify it with excuses about the parents' own upbringing or existing problems.

A narcissistic parent is a parent affected by narcissism or narcissistic personality disorder. Typically, narcissistic parents are exclusively and possessively close to their children and are threatened by their children growing independent. This results in a pattern of narcissistic attachment, with the parent considering that the child exists solely to fulfill the parent's needs and
